Teacher Education for Secondary Level I and Baccalaureate Schools

Learning outcomes
The aim of the course is for students to acquire solid vocational skills based on their specialised field of learning and to build the hands-on skills required to teach in schools at Secondary Education Level I and Baccalaureate Schools. Future teachers will understand how to plan, initiate, guide and evaluate learning processes and to fulfil their educational mandate in a responsible and professional way.

Organisation of studies
The pedagogical, didactic and practical vocational training covers 106 ECTS credits and is divided into five modules:
- Module 1: Fundamentals of educational sciences and general didactics (15 ECTS credits)
- Module 2: School and society (8 ECTS credits)
- Module 3: Teaching and learning (13 ECTS credits)
- Module 4: Subject Didactics (22 ECTS credits)
- Module 5: Occupational training (48 ECTS credits)

Career openings
The Combined Teaching Diploma for Secondary Education Level I and Baccalaureate Schools is a certificate of proficiency for teaching at Secondary Education Level I and Baccalaureate Schools. This diploma will enable the holder to teach at Secondary Education Level I (Year 9 to Year 11 of the HarmoS system) and/or at Baccalaureate Schools, specialised Baccalaureate schools and upper secondary specialised schools. Some people use it to pursue a career in other fields.
